

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. CONSTITUTION
OF THE
BAR ASSOCIATION OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

---

ARTICLE 1.

NAME.

The Name of this Association shall be
"THE BAR ASSOCIATION OF THE HA-WAIIAN ISLANDS."

ARTICLE 2.

OBJECTS.

The Objects of this Association shall be to promote good fellowship among its members; to make all proper suggestions for the improvement of the present system of practice in the courts of the Hawaiian Islands; to consider such questions of law and legislation as may be of interest to the bar, and make such recommendations in the premises as may be deemed proper; to aid our Judiciary in the administration of Justice; to advance the interests of the Bar of the Hawaiian Islands in every way consistent with the public good, and to do such other things as properly come within the scope of similar organizations.

This Association is strictly non-political, and shall not be used directly or indirectly for political purposes.

ARTICLE 3. MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. All attorneys at law who were present at the meeting held June 24th, 1899, and who were present at the meeting held June 28th, 1899, shall be deemed Charter Members of the Association.

Section 2. Any practitioner admitted to practice in the Courts of Record in the Hawaiian Islands shall be eligible to election to membership.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

Section 3. Application for membership in this Association shall be made in writing addressed to the Secretary, endorsed by two members of the Association, and posted in the office of the Clerk of the Judiciary Department for at least one week prior to being acted upon by the Association. Applications for membership herein may be balloted upon at any regular or special meeting of this Association, and if there shall be not more than one negative vote in five such applicant shall be duly elected.

EXPULSION OF MEMBERS.

Section 4. Any member who shall have failed to pay his dues for over six months, or shall be charged with unprofessional conduct, and found guilty thereof by this Association, shall be expelled from membership in this Association. Provided, however, that such members shall be furnished with a written copy of any such charge, and allowed an opportunity to defend himself; and, provided further, that a two-thirds vote of the members present, exclusive of himself, at the meeting at which such charge is heard, shall be necessary to expel.

ARTICLE 4.

MEETINGS.

The annual meeting of this Association shall be held on the last Wednesday of the month of May in each and every year. Quarterly meetings shall be held on the last Wednesday of the month of August, November and February of each and every year. Special meetings may be called at any time at the written request of not less than five members of the Association, after ten day's notice thereof being first given to each member by the Secretary, stating the object of such meeting.

Fifteen members shall constitute a quorum, and no proxies shall be allowed.

ARTICLE 5.

OFFICERS.

The Officers of this Association shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, whose duty shall be those usually appertaining to such offices; and Standing Committees as provided by the by-laws.

ARTICLE 6.

DUES.

There shall be an admission fee of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50), and annual dues of Five Dollars ($5.00), payable semi-annually.

ARTICLE 7.

ELECTIONS.

Officers of this Association shall be elected at each annual meeting, and shall hold office until their successors are elected.

ARTICLE 8.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The Order of Business of this Association shall be as follows:

- 1st. Reading of Minutes of previous meeting.
- 2d. Reading of Communications.
- 3d. Reports of Officers and Committees.
- 4th. Unfinished Business .
- 5th. New Business.

ARTICLE 9.

AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION.

This Constitution may be amended at any regular meeting of the Association by a two-thirds vote of the members present; provided, that at least ten day's notice of the proposed amendment shall be given by the Secretary in writing to each member, fully setting forth the proposed amendment.

BY-LAWS

Section 1. There shall be an Executive Committee of nine members, consisting of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and five other members of the Association, to be appointed annually by the President. Three members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum for regular meetings.

Section 2. The Executive Committee shall have control of the funds and property of the Association, subject to the Constitution, and such action as the Association may take at its meetings, and it shall carry out and give effect to the Constitution, resolutions and votes of the Association.

Section 3. The Executive Committee shall meet on the Friday immediately preceding each regular meeting of the Association, and at other times upon the call of the chairman thereof, provided said call be approved in writing by the President of the Association.

Section 4. There shall be an Annual Dinner given on the evening of the last Friday of May. The fee for each member desiring to attend the same shall be fixed by the Executive Committee at a sum not exceeding

$5. All Judges of the Courts of Record and Judges of the United States shall be guests of the Association at such dinner, and such persons, not residents of the Republic, as may be approved by the Executive Committee. Said Committee shall supervise all arrangements for such dinner, and it may expend out of the funds of the Association such an amount as shall be necessary to defray the expenses arising out of the invitations that may be extended as aforesaid and accepted by the parties invited.

Section 5. At the Annual Dinner a Paper shall be read, or an Address given, upon some legal or other subject, by some person to be chosen by the Executive Committee, and the same may be followed by a general discussion, each member being limited to ten minutes.

Section 6. All resolutions, if so ordered by one-third of the members present at any meeting of the Association shall be referred to the Executive Committee for consideration and report and said Committee may report upon the same forthwith; but, failing so to do, it shall report thereon at a meeting immediately following the introduction thereof, unless given further time for consideration.

Section 7. Upon the demand of one-third of the members present at any meeting of the Association, or of the Executive Committee, the vote upon any matter shall be taken by Yeas and Nays.

Section 8. All elections shall be by ballot, unless otherwise ordered by a two-thirds vote of the Association.

Section 9. The Executive Committee and the Treasurer of the Association shall render reports at each annual meeting of the Association. The Treasurer's report shall be submitted to the Auditor for verification at least ten days before the annual meeting.

Section 10. The President shall annually appoint an Auditor to serve for one year, or until his successor is appointed. He shall audit the accounts of the Treasurer and report his findings to the Association at the annual meeting next following his appointment.

Section 11. It shall be deemed unprofessional for any member of the Association to give, or allow, any commission, bonus or reward to any person not a member of the Bar, for any legal business of what kind or nature soever which may be brought to him by such person.

Section 12. In the absence of the President and the Vice-President, the Chairman, or any member of the Executive Committee, may call the Association to order, and a President pro tem. shall be elected.

Section 13. The Executive Committee shall, in the event of the death of any member of the Association, make such arrangements for the obsequies, and take such action in connection therewith, as it may deem best.

Section 14. All Judges of the Courts of Record of Hawaii, and all Judges of the United States Courts in Hawaii, shall be honorary members of the Association, and exempt from all fees and dues.

Section 15. No member shall speak more than ten minutes upon any matter before the Association, nor shall he speak more than twice upon the same subject, unless by unanimous consent.

Section 16. Any By-Law may be amended or suspended at any regular meeting by a three-fourths vote of the members present.

Section 17. Cushing's Manual shall be the parliamentary guide for the Association.
